

Slug: Educate Yourself: Black Women and Breast Cancer

Reporter: Ariana Cobb

SEO Tags: Breast Cancer; African Americans; Women; October; Breast Cancer Awareness

OC: THIS ARE WORST "Black folks are affected traditionally more because they seek care later. And then by the time they do get care, cancer is worst, the disease is worst, all those things are worst." Font: Ariana Cobb NewsVision Reporter TRT:10 OC: OWN HEALTH ADVOCATES -----TAKE SOT----- Font: Tswana Sewell Executive Director, American Cancer Society TRT:14 OC: AND YOUR BODY "Be your own advocate, if you have to get a second opinion get it. don't be intimidated if your doctor tells you, oh you're too young, or you have cystic breast this is not serious enough, you know your body so really take control of that and your body." ------(TAKE VO)----- Video Participates cheering	OC: THIS ARE WORST ------(ARIANA)----- BLACK WOMEN HAVE A FORTY-1 PERCENT HIGHER MORTALITY RATE THAN WHITE WOMEN. WITH THERE BEING MANY DISPARITIES, BLACK WOMEN ARE ENCOURAGED TO BE THEIR OWN HEALTH ADVOCATES. -----SOT----- TRT:14 OC: AND YOUR BODY -----VO IN----- IN WASHINGTON D.C. ARIANA COBB FOR HU NEWSVISION
---	--